

The winners of the 2019 Terry Hetherington Young Writers Award have been announced. They are:

1st Prize: Eleanor Howe for her Poem 'The Fox'

Runner Up Poetry Prize: Nathan Munday for his poem 'At Last'

Runner Up Fiction Prize: Cynan Llwyd for his story 'The Humiliation of Basboosa'

Congratulations to all winners.

Click here for more details of the winners.

Highly Commended Eleanor Howe, her second poem LLynisaf was also very high scoring , all judges were very impressed with her writing

Commended Morgan Owen , Narrowly missing a prize with his poetry entries.

The judges agreed that (in addition to the winners) the following highest scoring entries should be included in the Cheval 12 anthology:

Katya Johnson , Fiction .. 'Folly farm'

Morgan Owen , Poetry .. 'Connecting journey Chester' , 'Dowlais Dream', 'Gelligaer Common'

Gareth Smith , Fiction.. 'Closed Book'

Cara Cullen , Poetry .. 'Cil Stone'

Samuel Hulett, fiction.. 'Flood Plain'

Kathy Chamberlain, Fiction.. 'As Vision Fades'

Catrin Lawrence , Fiction .. 'A modest Proposal'

All other entries in the anthology to be at the editors' discretion.